

The Light Source

Glare Shields

Spun aluminum glare shields fasten directly to the lens retainer ring for fixture glare reduction. Two versions of glare shields are available—a tapered wide unit and a tight straight unit. They are easy to install on the fixture by removing 4 screws and then reinstalling the four screws through the holes in the glare shield.

Order Codes